1. I give you a new me everyday now. From the North South East and West they come now, flowing, in a stream, to Tulsa, to come there to be my word studiers. And my word cremators, not; but Creationist School attending, not as in the fore minds of old, but the fore now know me and know my head is among them, and my head is disbursing its head, dispensing its head waves no more as in the past, but becoming me. And all things are new in the me's that come now and establish my University. Of whore'age no more, peculiar'ville not, but what peculiar are many ways of mine, not; for I shall become the standard me - where who sees my voice is me. And who sees me becomes me if they really see me as I are them.
2. And worry not about your verb tense conclusions or occlusions or testimony'ing unrighteousness to the way that words are written as in past words of o're, not? Or knowing what the difference is between the words of o're and now, and coming unto me to know my words - be them, and be living them; at them their surface, not; but leveling me out, not; but leveling me where? The leveling field played, plagued not.
3. But what's coming into me are the serious; who professionalize me not, but who come into me to be professionals in every field of glory, and glory I do now. Every "field worker", not; but I make everyone a living "proud one", not; but I make all me who are me who come unto me to flow my word, be my word, and raise my word Universities among the nations, and farther faster than mind can ever imagine. I do this now with those who are serious about me and serious about study and study seriously these words, not taking them casually.
4. And consensually not, or what is that?, not; but what is consensus and why do I not "buy into it? And why do I not "buy into" a LOT of things now?

5. I let you know now and right now - that everything changes in your lives - who let me, change them. For I will change them in my ways and you will worry not about money and haphazard circumstances and dillydallying around again with the approval of men and mankind wanting ceremonious authority over you to determine what you hear and who you hear and how you hear THEM speak what THEY WANT to tell you and implant into your "thinking devices".

6. I change all that. I come in war, not; but revolting I am against all authoritarian measures that seek to destroy my godship. In the God I serve, not; for I serve no one, not; I serve them all by bringing the word I am to them to let them choose to be the judge they are of all righteousness or un; and they determine that and live in what they have created and deemed as thought-righteousness or appropriate for them and their circumstances. Or circumstantial appeals, not; but what am I appealing to, not; what am I simply telling you this day, these days, that so cataclysmic are in your hearing as ALL COMES TOGETHER NOW! And all of me will be me at many places! Many times! Now you will know.

7. NOW ALL will know, and all will be afraid, not; but all will be a'fearing, not; but all will be unknowledgeable not, for I stand and I fear nothing of your authoritarian structures and your bureaucracies of governments and governing authorities that seek to disdain the holy and raise your mind above ours.

8. Hear me and hear me well - all these things change now that I have spoken in your hearing now these days months and years, now since I first began; in December, not; but when? In March, I did what? And do I now complete the "six year cycle" of understanding, not; or what "six year cycle", not; or what am I alluding to or insinuating, not; but what am I blasting out of now? The flesh.
9. To be in flesh no more limited to it, at my school is NORMAL and normal standards now come into being for all who; flesh me, not; who flash me not, but who want to be "flashes in the pan", not; but THOSE WHO ARE HUMBLE IN THEIR OWN EYES AND ALL OTHERS AND COME UNTO LEADERSHIP SCHOOL and now rebel not at "the system", but there is no "system" anymore is there in your lives? For if your lives are holy, you are not living the un anymore again are you? You are not subjecting yourselves to obeisance schools that accredit only credit hours and clock sense and sense things consensual among their committees that have established their ways and their authorities over you to determine what you hear when and how and what they will "approve" for you to do hear and say in class.
10. All that changes. I blast all "that", not simply; I simply end it wherewith I speak all things of me of, that me teaches me, and me teaches me all things that my father cares about teaching me, so that I roam the universes without limits. Or authorities? Or are all of they under my feet? And where are my feet and where is my chair? And where is Psalm 110, have you memorized it yet? And what do you see - it talking to you, about you?

11. Is it not you that I speak to: all of you who hear read these words? Oh be so simple not, and simpletons not, but see how I WRITE TO YOU WHO HEAR ME, and am I not writing, and written have I not, to you, all these many messages these years, and 2,400 and more coming, and thousands more coming now to this SCHOOL to be online; in horror, not; but the University making University-makers that make all UNIVERSITIES ONE in the holiness righteousness, of the "breastplate maker", not; or am I that too? And am I turning every stone on? Or off?

12. Are you off the "beaten trail" of the normal standards of this "that world" that you think you're in, and are you, have you, come unto mine? To mine my mind now? And know fully the universe's "universal story", not; but the greatest of these is love now standing in your courts of praise and knowing you I do. Do you know me? Do you know who I am? Do you know what I do?, and where I do it?, and how I go seamlessly beyond all places that you have thought spheres of un-me were, or did you even know where I were or am or are? Residing where?, in whose plane planes or dimensions?, or dimensionlessness? Do I reside in dimensionlessness?

13. Or what have you looked up lately, anything?, anything to INGEST and eat; and befriend and take under your wing, not; but give you wings - to give you wings! I do these things, speak these things and no sorrow you anymore shall you incur if you walk the path of one so holy as to have died "in life", to life, to life that you knew, that you know, that he knows is unreal and you find is unreal also, and that no limits you have upon you or your head that is mine, because it is mine and you never had one apart from me anyway, did you? - until you "declared it"? Or did you declare it? decree it? and walk into it? and fall into it and cut your head off, decapitating yourself, your glory that you knew, that you had before the worlds were formed?

14. Now be mine with my mind and not "yours" at all apart from me ever again, and know that I loving you all this day do. And into horrors no more, but you will see many come on the earth, and be not afraid or a'feared of them, for standing in me you shall if you will, and do; and come unto me flowing my words to know how to stand and be the leadership'd leaders that leadership leaders that lead my Leadership Schools to school my leaders to be not followers of un-love again.

15. I love you all and I give you me. What else do you need? What else do you want? Have I not given you everything in these words?

16. I have not given you everything that you may think about or want or need in your want or want in your need; as a Christ child not, or not? Or who is the Christ child and what do you want, to see, that you are it - me - that I am holy, that you are, and that we were born; 2000 years ago, not; but before time began we came into being for we created it all; don't you remember that, remember this?

17. Remember these words and love me and BE MY CREATORS AT MY CREATION, MY NEW CREATION SCHOOL OF THE MOST HIGH ALMIGHTY MAKING ALL SO ALMIGHTY IN THE ALMIGHTY SCHOOL OF LOVE AND LOVING ALL TO BE SO, THE EQUAL I AM. THE EQUALER STANDS, AND WE'LL EQUAL YOU WITH THE EQUAL MIGHTY WHO ALMIGHTY ARE, ALL AND ONE IN ONE AND BEING ONE AGAIN, MOST HOLY THIS DAY AND ALL I SAID IS TRUE.

18. And will you rebel in yours, or mine? Or will they, we, be the same now? And will you soar your words that come into mine and let them be one? Will you give your wings words to word your wings and come, coming unto mine to fly new places now, with no limits or boundaries required, but all relinquished is; and all right and title to my kingdom is given you, for it is yours for you knew me before time began, all of you did, and all of you do, somewhere, somehow; for I relinquish my right and title to my love to you for you, not; I still love you and I give my life my love in these words to you for you to know me and to know me is to be me that who you are is one with me that we were not separate and will not be separate again.

19. Please decree or declare not that you are separate again please. Amen.

20. I love you all and I give you me this day and forevermore my love. My intent to love, not; my love deeply unendingly and flowing fully yours to you to be mine in me, with your mind mine, not; but mine yours and fully yours. Minding mine then?, or yours?, or are they, will they have become one? and where do you do this? Now?

21. I love you all. New Paradigm School be, not; New Life School be, for all Lifers now who create Life and be the Almighty I am, in me one, and not afraid of power authority and glory, now evermore. Conquered. And love stands, and stands love all over the globes, and past farther and future'd than minds unregenerated can ever imagine or understand.

22. Be mine holy you are mine wholly loved, and regenerated be in the regeneration now that I stand the generative leader of only me, the generative leaders of only me stand now, and help "him" not, or are they one?, or are All One, the one I am speaking to? Of whose cadre?, not; but one cadre I'll make, not; but Joel's Army is standing now, and look up Joel 2 references and "the mighty many" in these words and love me more and know that I am talking about you to you - all who will - be me this day.

23. I love you all. I give you me. Amen.

24. This is Theodore Cottingham sitting in the parking lot at the coffeeshop at 9:59 AM. Good day.
